LIVESTOCK SCHOLARSHIP WINNER
Katie Williams

Justin Wiedower, son of Rodney & Jennifer Wiedower of Quitman is the recipient of the 2008 Arkansas State Fair Farm & Ranch Club of Arkansas – Livestock Exhibitor Scholarship. Justin will receive $1,000 to help fund his education as she pursues a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture Business and Education at Arkansas Tech University in Russellville. Justin plans to become an Agriculture Teacher and FFA Advisor upon completion of his degree.

Justin has been very involved in Livestock Shows since young in life. He raised and showed lambs for nine years and hogs for six years and has participated at the county, district, state and national levels. Justin currently serves as State President of Arkansas FFA as well as a State Fair Junior Ambassador. He was a National FFA Delegate in 2007 and has also attended Washington Leadership Conference. While livestock show participation has been the focus of his extracurricular activities as a student at Quitman High School, he has also been very active in Student Council, Quitmanfest, his Church Youth Group, Hurricane Katrina Relief Efforts, and the Arkansas Junior Cattlemen's Association. Justin has also played on the Junior Varsity & Varsity Basketball Team at Quitman since 2000.

Justin will be presented the Arkansas State Fair Farm & Ranch Club Scholarship Award at the Arkansas State Fair Annual Meeting to be held August 1 at the State Fairgrounds in Little Rock.
