Thank you for choosing to compete in the Arkansas State Fair pageants and talent competitions. We look forward to helping you or your child build confidence and gain experience on stage. While we do not have full jurisdiction on how local county fairs operate their talent shows or pageants, we are excited to offer this as a guide on what to expect at the Arkansas State Fair. We promise to provide a fun, warm, inviting, professional atmosphere, and help you create a memorable experience that will last a lifetime. Our goal is to build character, spread kindness and encourage our contestants to be the best version of themselves on, and off the stage. We appreciate all of the district and county fair directors that pour their time and talent into the youth of our state and support them in advancing to the Arkansas State Fair.

Junior and Senior Fair Queen Pageants

How do I compete? Contestants must be a legal resident of Arkansas and win their local ASF affiliated county or district fair (where they reside) to be invited to the Arkansas State Fair pageant. In the event that your county does not have a fair, you can compete at the open pageant and win your local county title.

Am I eligible? Senior Fair Queen contestants must be 18-23 years old and either a graduating high school senior, enrolled in post-secondary education, or non-pursuant of education by October, 1st. Jr. Fair Queen contestants must be 14-17 years of age regardless of what grade you are in. If you are 17 and a senior, and want to compete in the senior division for a chance to win scholarships, you may do so. No one 18 and up can be in the Jr. Division. Junior and Senior contestants must be legal residents of that county or reside in that district for at least six months.

College Students: To be eligible to compete in the county or district fair where you are currently attending college, you must have completed one full semester, be a full-time student, and currently be carrying 12 credit hours.

A contestant must have been born a female. She cannot be, become, or at any time have been married, engaged, had a marriage annulled, pregnant, or have had a child. Contestants must not have ever been convicted of any crime or have any criminal charges pending.

Past ASF royalty are ineligible to compete again. ASF Jr. Fair Queens may compete when they age up into the Senior Fair Queen division.

Open Pageant: This event will be held only if there are enough contestants to hold a competition. To be eligible, you must be 1st runner up of your local fair or district competition, or reside in a county that does not have a local fair pageant. The winner of the open pageant will be crowned with the title of Jr./Sr. Diamond State. If any contestants are competing representing a county without a local pageant, they will be crowned with their county title. We want all counties to have a representative at the Arkansas State Fair pageant.

Alright, I won my local county/district or open title! What happens next?

Fill out our official form online and submit your headshot. A more detailed schedule will be mailed and emailed to all contestants two weeks prior to the pageant along with one free wrist band for your guest. Admission into Barton Coliseum is $5 and free for kids under 5. This parking area is directly in front of Barton Coliseum . All contestants, families, and fans must enter into Barton Coliseum at Entrance 3.

Complimentary Sashes: Count this as your official ticket to advance and compete at the Arkansas State Fair. Your local county will have this uniform, beautiful sash to match your sister queens throughout the state. Remember to bring it, and wear it proudly.

Interview: This private, timed, five minute interview is a great opportunity to showcase your personality to the judging panel. Come prepared to talk about the topics on your entry form, current events, the fair in general, etc. This counts for 50% of your total score.

Parade of Contestants: This is the opening number. You'll walk up to the mic and say a fun introduction. Example: your name and your county.

Interview/Parade of Contestants Attire: Think bright, fun with flair, yet professional. Pantsuit, casual dress, jumpsuit, skirt, etc. This outfit will be what you wear for interview and the parade of contestants with your official complimentary Arkansas State Fair county/district sash when the pageant begins.

Evening Gown: After the parade of contestants, it is time for evening wear! You may wear a gown of your choice. We encourage you to wear something age-appropriate. Come ready to showcase your poise and confidence. Stage presence, eye contact, posture, and overall impression are important too. This counts for 30% of your score.

After the evening gown portion, the top 20 contestants will be invited back on stage to compete in onstage conversation.

Onstage Conversation: Contestants will be called to the stage in groups of four. In this three minute, timed event the emcee will lead the conversation by asking a question, and contestants will participate in a "conversation" with each other. One or two follow-up questions may also be asked by the emcee. This phase is judged on a contestant's ability to speak confidently, but listen sincerely. Judges are instructed to view this competition as a visual of how a contestant will present herself as a title holder and be representative of the Arkansas State Fair in a public setting. This counts as 10% of your final score.

After the onstage conversation portion, the top 10 contestants will be invited back on stage to compete in onstage question.

Onstage Question: Contestants will need to think on their feet with confidence and be prepared to shine. The emcee will ask a question unique to each young lady. This will count as 10% of your final score.

Royalty: Scholarships, cash prizes, and any additional awards will be awarded that night respectively. After crowning, we'll have a brief welcome meeting to discuss your reign at the Arkansas State Fair for the following week and upcoming year. It is time for you to shine!

Hair and Makeup: A list of local, affordable vendors (not affiliated with the Arkansas State Fair) will be available for you to contact for services. They will be set up in rooms 2 and 3 backstage, or you can do your own hair and makeup. We want this to be a fun, stress free, experience. Do what makes you feel confident.

Backstage: There will be plenty of space, but we do not want it congested. If a contestant needs assistance getting ready, one person can assist and then promptly leave the area. Only contestants and their plus one (if needed) as well as approved vendors are allowed backstage before the pageant begins. You are free to have your phone or walk to the front to see your family.
